A touching story Last Tuesday night, my classmate Zhang Peng noticed that the factory near his house was on fire. Immediately, he called the police for help and reported the exact address of the factory.

After that, he shouted so loudly that the people who lived near the factory could leave as quickly as possible. A few minutes later, the firefighters arrived and they put out the fire. They also gave him some presents because of his brave actions.

successfully. The next day, the firefighters came to our school in order to praise Zhang Peng.

From my point of view, I am deeply touched by what Zhang Peng has done. He is such a brave and wise boy that we should learn from him. If everyone cares about others, our whole society will be better and better.
